INT. HANGAR BAY - DAY

Ambient computer noises hum throughout the massive hangar bay of ANCHOR 9, where a purple Spartan CORBIN leans casually against a wall near the computer room entrance on one leg, admiring his armor.

CORBIN

Damn... they are so precise with this stuff

CALLISTO, a white-and-purple-armored Spartan, stands at a console, hands quickly interfacing with the system.

CALLISTO

Well, that was easier than expected

Nearby, faint metallic clicks echo.

INT. STAIRWAY

SPY, a grey and white Spartan, sits on the stairs flexing and testing the movement of his leg.

SPY

So this is what ONI meant when they said the best of the best

INT. HANGAR BAY ENTRANCE

A glowing hard light shield separates the hangar from open space. MARK, a red spartan stands facing outward gazing at the vastness of space and distant planets. Behind him, JIMMY, a green Spartan, examines a small bear attached to his armor.

MARK

It's... beautiful

JIMMY

Thanks Mark

MARK

Not you dummy

INT. COMPUTER ROOM

ZERO, another purple Spartan approaches a console and presses a random button.

ZERO

Hey, what's this button do?

He presses it, and instantly his body glitches into a low-Spartan, standing facing outward, poly version of himself. He freezes, stunned, then jerks back, staring at his hands.

ZERO (CONT'D)
What-WHAT AM I!

INT. SIDE ROOM

A small floating creature, about a third the height of a Spartan, drifts toward OKOM, who is mid-conversation with someone off-screen.

OKOM
Hey! Are you looking to get your Halo Infinite Spartan into VRChat?

He pauses briefly, then gestures to a screen above him.

OKOM (CONT'D)
Well, look no further

INT. SIDE ROOM - DAY

COBALT, who was watching the screen is now admiring his armor around the forearms and upper torso.

COBALT
I... did it.

YELLOH appears behind Cobalt, standing near a staircase. Yelloh calls out to Cobalt for his attention.

YELLOH
Hey Cobalt! You finally got your suit!

Cobalt turns around to respond.

COBALT
Yeah! I didn't think it could be done, but here we are.

INT. HANGAR BAY

Yelloh casually holds on to a vertical railing with his right hand while talking to Cobalt.

YELLOH
You've been MIA for days. What gives?

COBALT

Well, you know, I had no experience when going into it, but I decided to take on the challenge anyway.

YELLOH

And you did it. I'm so proud of you Cobalt.

COBALT

Thanks, Yelloh.

INT. HANGAR BAY ENTRANCE

A hard light shield separating the hangar bay from space glows in the faces of Yelloh and Cobalt as they stand before it, looking at the emptiness and the objects within.

YELLOH

So... what's next for you?

COBALT

I think I'm gonna start a transport business

YELLOH

Oh? What, like... Cobalt Cars?

COBALT

Even better. Cobalt...

Both Spartans look outside with an UNSC Ship floating in space.

COBALT (CONT'D)

...Ships.

YELLOH

And how are you planning on doing that?

COBALT

I dunno, I'll just fly by the seat of my pants.
